Text of Legislative File 25R-6058

Request Action:

A resolution to establish a Community Impact Fund with the Community Foundation of Broward

Need Summary Explanation/ Background:

The need for a dedicated fund to support community impact initiatives has become increasingly important. The City of Lauderhill has always been committed to enhancing the quality of life for its residents through various projects and programs. By partnering with the Community Foundation of Broward, we can ensure a sustainable and strategic approach to funding these vital initiatives. The proposed Community Impact Fund will be a designated fund, specifically tailored to meet the needs of our community. This fund will be managed in partnership with the Community Foundation of Broward, ensuring transparency, accountability, and effective resource allocation.
