☐ Yes ☒ No

Why are you interested in serving on a board? If you have not attached a resume, please describe any qualifications, skills, and abilities you possess that would directly benefit this board.

I am interested in serving on a board because of my passion for helping others, who through education, encouragement, and guidance may be better able to navigate a strategic path to their destiny. My qualifications consist of being a mother of three college-aged children. The challenges my husband and I faced, and overcame, to nurture and guide our children from the daycare choices to the college selection for their overall welfare. I will forward my resume with the other listed qualifications, skills, and abilities from my past experiences.
