Subject: Use of Abandoned Property Funds

The Broward County Human Trafficking Coalition (BHTC) is a local non-profit, 501c3 organization that promotes education for law enforcement centered on Human Trafficking. Additionally, the BHTC supports and provides important resources to victims of Human Trafficking. This organization has been a valued resource to the Lauderhill Police Department for the past four years. This year, they will be hosting their annual community awareness event on Saturday January 11, 2025.

The BHTC is partially funded through donations, as such; they are requesting any financial assistance to offset the costs of this year's community awareness event. I am requesting that we utilize $1,000 from the Abandoned Property Fund, 001-247300, to assist with this request.

RE: Request for financial sponsor

Greetings:

The mission of the Broward Human Trafficking Coalition is to educate and raise awareness about Human Trafficking and the risk factors that surround and contribute to the commercial exploitation of people. The Coalition serves as an information, education, and networking resource for organizations as well as the community. The purpose of the BHTC is to impact the response to victims of human trafficking & sexual exploitation through informational outreach and advocacy activities, to coordinate informational, educational, and training seminars, and identify resources available. Due to its collaborative role in combating this heinous crime, the BHTC is viewed as a national model, a forerunner in bringing "systems" together to prevent, prosecute, protect, and partner.

Every January during National Human Trafficking Awareness Month, BHTC produces/host awareness events. The goal of these events is primarily to raise community awareness, educate and provide an arena where multiple agencies can network and collaborate in their efforts to combat human trafficking & exploitation.

BHTC Board of Directors, its speakers and members are unpaid volunteers who give freely of their time and expertise throughout the year in speaking engagements and training sessions within our Broward community.

The Broward Human Trafficking Coalition and its' sub-committee STARS (Stop Trafficking and Rescue Survivors) is hosting their annual youth summit and annual community awareness event this upcoming January 2025. Our annual youth summit is scheduled for Saturday January 11, 2025 & our annual community awareness event is scheduled for Saturday January 25, 2025. Both events will be held at the Johnny L. Tigner Community Center located in Deerfield Beach. Our desired audience for this year's youth summit is high school seniors enrolled in Broward County Schools on track to graduate. This year's youth summit will focus on internet safety & sextortion. We have two amazing speakers to facilitate our youth workshop. Young adults are at risk for internet exploitation and sextortion. Helping them understand the importance of using wisdom while navigating the internet will secure their safety as they begin their journey as young adults. We have the privilege of having a survivor of HT and an FBI Task Force member to navigate this conversation with our high school seniors.

Our January 25, 2025 community awareness event will discuss the intersections between missing black & brown humans and human trafficking & exploitation. The Broward Human Trafficking Coalition has the honor of welcoming Natalie Wilson from the acclaimed and award-winning HBOMAX & HULU documentary Black & Missing to lead this conversation on January 25, 2025.

These events are both free. There's charge to the youth or the community. We are providing lunch for the young people attending the youth summit. BHTC is seeking financial sponsors and financial donations to assist with the costs of these two events. Your donations will assist us in covering the cost of our speaker fees, food for the youth, swag bags and other items for our youth. I hope you will please give serious consideration to this request. Any amount your organization decides to give will be greatly appreciated.

Events surrounding this subject matter are greatly needed not only this community but surrounding communities. Organizations donating $1,000.00 or more will be recognized on our event flyers, our website and will be recognized on the day of the events.

You can reach me at any time by phone or via e-mail. I anxiously await your reply. I also encourage you to visit our website @ www.bhtc.us.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.

Sincerely,

Director, Exempt Organizations

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.
