Summary Explanation/ Background:

The City of Lauderdale launched the “Unity in the Community” Program in 2019, initiated by then Commissioner Denise Grant to foster community fortification, safety, and unity among residents. The Unity in the Community involves city officials, community liaisons, and stakeholders visiting various neighborhoods to canvass, engage with homeowner associations, residents, and local leaders, answering questions, addressing concerns, and sharing ideas to strengthen community bonds. The City Commission believes that it is in the best interest of the City to continue to support the Unity in the Community program to create a vibrant Lauderdale where every resident feels valued, heard, and protected.
