This is a first shot, feel free to edit. Give me a call after you read.. ----- I have been living in Lauderhill for more than 25 years. And, I have no intention in living anywhere else; I am a committed resident to the Cityof Lauderhill, my city, and without any hesitation would like to contribute to the continuous development of my city, The City of Lauderhill. Question: What can I do, how do I do this? Answer: Instead of staying on the sideline and making complains with my neighbors and other fellow "Lauderhillians", I think it is now necessary to insert myself in a position where I can be the eyes, voice, and ears for my neighbors and other fellow "Lauderhillians", in an effort to make a positive change, where necessary, relative to our concerns. We love our City and we want it to be at its BEST, the best it can ever be. I would like to be a part of the SOLUTION, and I am, therefore, submitting myself to be a member of a board, the avenue I can use as a conduit to put our (myself, my neighbors, and fellow Lauderhillians) thoughts, concerns, ideas on the decision making table. Talking to ourselves alone will not help. I am willing and able, and ready to work for my city, The City of Lauderhill! Regards- -----
