Commission approval is required prior to the submittal to satisfy the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) regulations for Participating Jurisdictions receiving federal funding.

The CAPER is an annual evaluation and performance report of the City's approved Fifth Year Action Plan. It provides details on accomplishments made towards meeting the goals outlined in the Five (5) Year Consolidated Plan for the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program, administered by the City. Fiscal Year (FY) 2024 (Program Year -PY 2023) is the fourth year of the 2020-2024 Consolidated Plan period, which runs from October 1, 2023 to September 30, 2024.

Approved projects for FY 2023-2024 included public service, neighborhood facilities improvements, affordable housing preservation via rehab activities targeted towards eligible elderly households, and program administration. Additionally, the City continued to make critical improvements to public facilities and park amenities as necessary. Funding utilized during this fiscal year targeted and benefited low- and moderate-income persons. The City's efforts were consistent with the National Objectives of this federal CDBG program.
